FOREWORD

"Not what we give, but what
we share,
For the gift without the giver is bare.
He who gives himself with his alms feeds three,
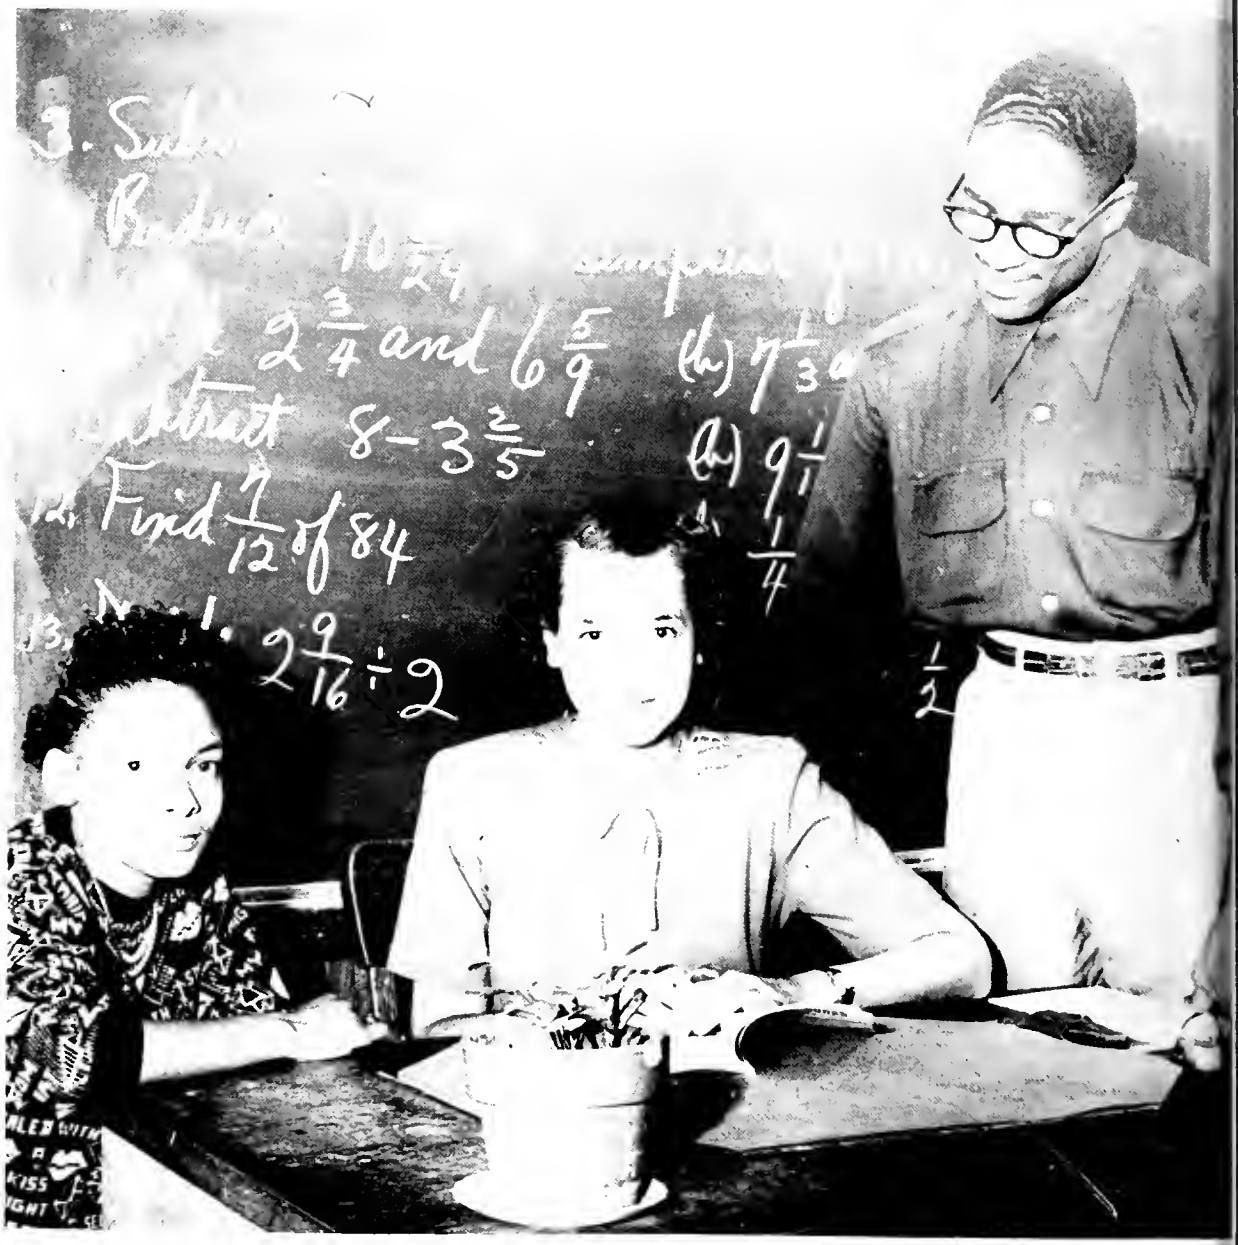
Himself, his hungering
neighbor and Me."

This quotation is a summation of our stay at T. C. It is taken from the Vision of Sir Launfal by James Russell Lowell. The pages here are intended to bring back memories of those things which we have shared with you. They depict what we feel for T. C.—her spirit, her beauty, her knowledge.

THE STAFF



DEDICATION

To that person who has given an immeasurable amount of energy, guidance, and resourcefulness to make our sojourn at dear "T. C." a pleasant and successful one —we dedicate The Ram of '51.

MISS ETHEL C. WILKINSON

A SALUTE TO THE BOYS IN THE SERVICE

We, the members of the Class of '51, are proud to pay tribute to the boys of our class who have already gone into the armed forces of our country and to those who will be going at the close of the school year. In paying tribute to Robert Leavell and Milfred Greene, we salute all our classmates who, through their military service, will be making this world a better place place in which to live.

Tomorrow
(Class Song)

Words and Music by Melcena Bailey and
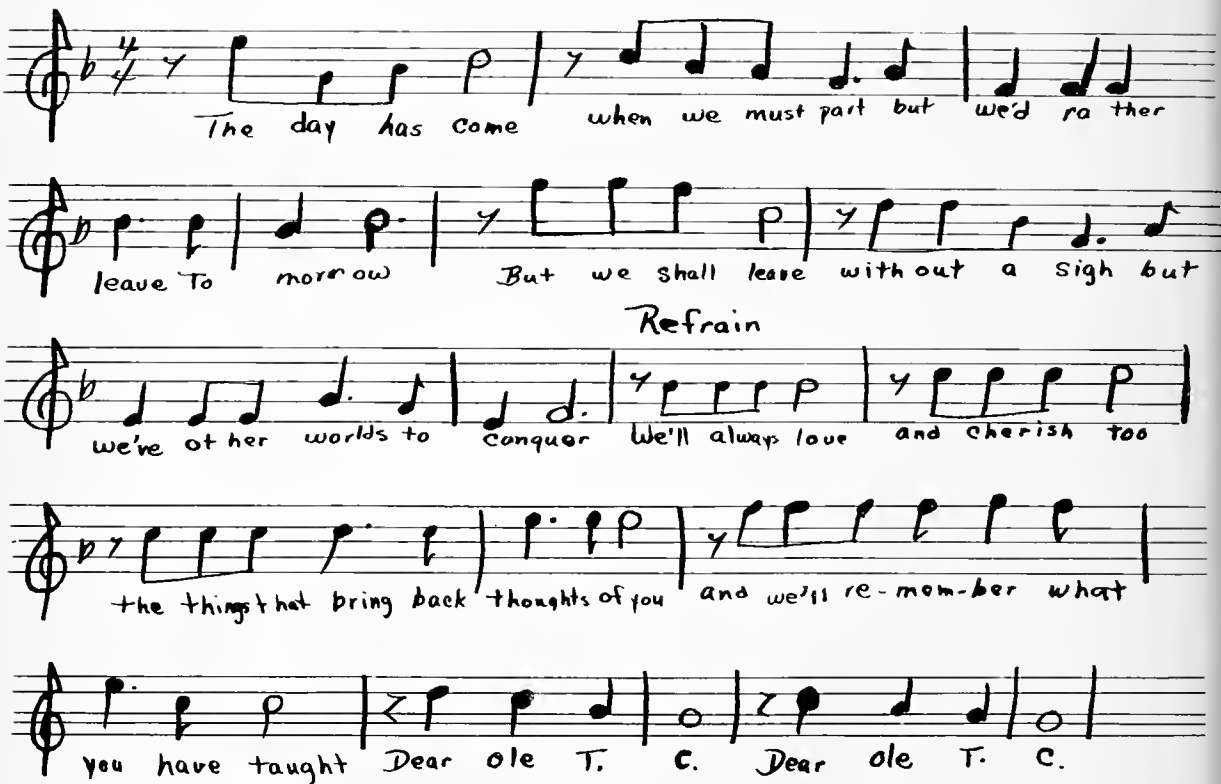
Sylvester Dixon



Although our eyes are filled with tears,
Our hearts are filled with gladness
Because this day brings us great joy,
It also brings us sadness.

Our light must shine to show the way
For others to see and follow.
So we must go upon our way,
But we'd rather leave tomorrow.
